Photo Album of Charles Joslin Call and Elizabeth Ann Coe from the 1880s-1890s

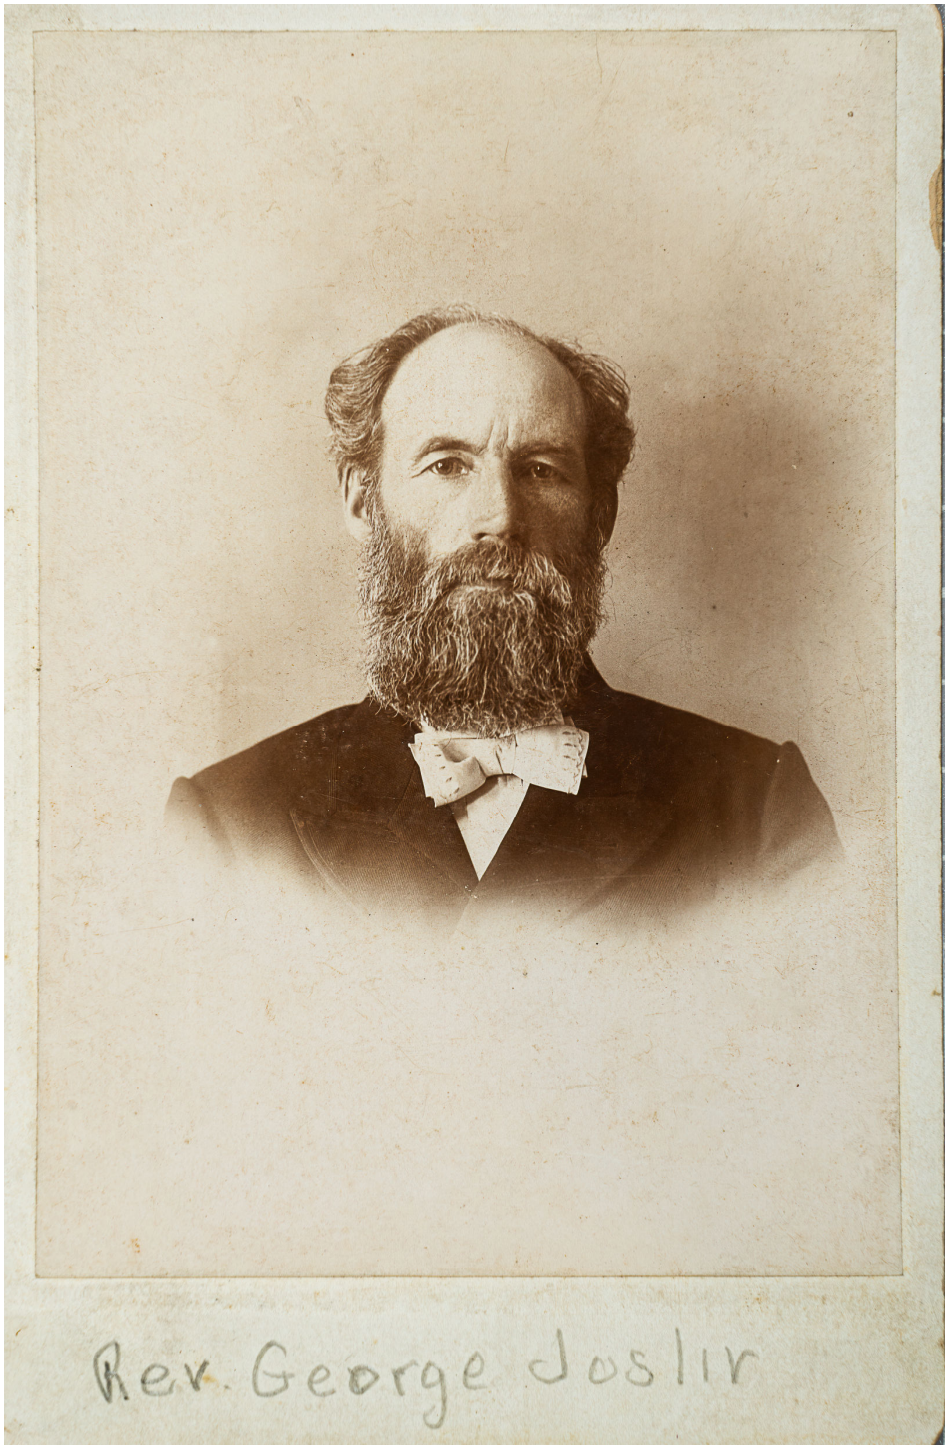
This photo album belonged to my great-grandparents Charles Joslin Call (1859-1939) and Elizabeth Ann Coe (1862-1956) of Stafford, Genesee County, New York. They were part of an extended family that stayed connected, visiting, and sharing photographs, across the miles.

Most of the subjects of the photographs in the album are identified, either on the album page or on the back of the photograph. Much of the writing on the backs is in Elizabeth Ann (Coe) Call's handwriting.

I have added biographical information about the people in the photos to add context to the family and the album. More information about the people, as well as information about how I dated the photographs, can be found on my blog starting at https://pattyhankins.blogspot.com/p/charles-joslin-call-and-elizabeth-ann.html

More information and historical documents relating to people in the photos can be found on my public tree at Ancestry at https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/tree/161131565

Patty Hankins
Patty@Hankins.net
June 2023



George Adams Joslin

1844-1921

George Adams Joslin was born in Meshaw, Devon, England on April 10, 1844, the son of Robert Bird Joslin (1801-1881) and Mary Ann Adams (1808-1871). He married Mary Whitford Verran (1841-1908) in Redruth, Cornwall, England on September 8, 1873. George and Mary had three children: Mary Ann Joslin (1876-1965), George Stanley Joslin (1879-1952), and Elizabeth Verran Joslin (1887-1971). George died on May 6, 1921, in Madison, Dane County, Wisconsin.

George Adams Joslin became a Methodist minister in the late 1860s in England. He worked in several parishes in Somerset, Kent, Devon, and Cornwall between 1868-1879. In 1881, George immigrated to the United States, arriving on January 3, 1881. His wife and children may have immigrated with him or followed shortly afterward. Between 1881 and 1921, George ministered in several locations in Wisconsin, including Trousdale, Pepe, Merrimack, Louisville, Ellsworth, Benton, Fayette, Sparta, and Madison.

According to the information on the back of the photograph, it was taken in April 1899. There is no information about who took the photograph or where it was taken.

Charlotte (Joslin) Call
1834-1908

Charlotte Joslin was born on May 26, 1834, in Filleigh, Devon, England to Robert Bird Joslin (1801-1881) and Mary Ann Adams (1808-1871) and was baptized there on June 15, 1834. She met her future husband, Robert Call (1831-1913) prior to immigrating to the United States. In 1851, they were both enumerated in the census as working on the farm of Richard Reed in Chawleigh, Devon.

Charlotte immigrated to the United States in 1854, arriving in Boston on May 31 on the ship Medium with her sister Ann, and Charlotte Blackmore, who married her brother William Joslin. Charlotte and Robert Call married six weeks later, on July 16, 1854, in Fitchburg, Worcester County, Massachusetts.

Charlotte gave birth to her first two children, William Alfred (1855-1856) and Albert Henry (1857-1934) in Burlington, Middlesex County, Massachusetts. The family moved to Genesee County, New York where three additional children, Charles Joslin (1859-1939), Alva (1861-1861), and Elizabeth Alberta (1862-1929), were born.

Charlotte was very active in the temperance movement and other social causes. On September 5, 1884, she founded the Women's Christian Temperance Union in Morganville, Genesee County. She served as President of her local union until 1905. Over the years, she attended several county, state, national, and international W.C.T.U. conventions.

Charlotte died on September 27, 1908, at her home in Stafford, Genesee County.

The photograph was taken at the studio of Charles W. Tallman, in Batavia, Genesee County, probably in the late 1880s.

Robert Call
1831-1913

Robert Call was born on June 5, 1831, in Chawleigh, Devon, England to John Call (1788-1872) and Grace Paine (1789-1862) and was baptized there on July 3, 1831. Robert met his future wife, Charlotte Joslin (1834-1908) prior to immigrating to the United States. In 1851, they were both enumerated in the census as working on the farm of Richard Reed in Chawleigh.

Robert immigrated to the United States in 1854, arriving in Philadelphia on March 22 on the ship City of Glasgow. He married Charlotte Joslin on July 16, 1854, in Fitchburg, Worcester County, Massachusetts, six weeks after Charlotte arrived in the United States.

On October 21, 1857, Robert Call filed his Declaration of Intent to become a U.S. citizen. Three years later, on October 23, 1860, he became a U.S. Citizen.

In 1868, Robert purchased two farms in Stafford, Genesee County, New York. He purchased the Robbins Farm on March 18 and the Woodruff Farm on April 1. Robert and Charlotte lived on this farm, which became known as Prospect Farm for the remainder of their lives.

Robert Call died on May 9, 1913, at his home in Stafford, Genesee County. His obituary highlighted his prohibition work and the founding of Call Memorial Hall.

The photograph was taken at the studio of Charles W. Tallman, in Batavia, Genesee County, New York, probably in the late 1880s.

Albert Coe

1827-1907

Albert Coe was born on 17 February 1827, probably in Covington, Genesee County, New York, the son of Ezra Coe (1796-1869) and Elizabeth Ann Sornberger (1795-1887). He lived in Genesee County for his entire life. Albert attended the local schools where he met his future wife, Deborah Prentice in 1847. They married on December 31, 1850. Albert and Deborah had five children: Mary Isadore (1851-1924), Ezra Frank (1853-1942), Elizabeth Ann (1862-1956), Clara Addie (1864-1950), and Carrie Evelyn (1864-1948).

Albert and his family lived in Pavilion, Genesee County until 1873. Two years later, they purchased land in Le Roy, where they lived for the remainder of their lives. He died on March 26, 1907, in Le Roy, Genesee County.

The photograph was taken by John Howe Kent of Rochester, Monroe County, New York, probably between 1884 and 1890.

The photograph from the facing page in the album is missing. At one time, it held a photograph of Albert's wife, Deborah Prentice.

George Washington Sperry

1853-1933

George Washington Sperry was born on June 29, 1853, in Pavilion, Genesee County, New York, the son of Platt T. Sperry (1814-1889) and Rebecca Storm (1821-1857). He married Mary Isadore Coe (1851-1924), daughter of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910) on May 7, 1879, in Le Roy, Genesee County.

According to census records, George was a farmer in Pavilion until after 1900. In 1910, George and Mary were living in Benton, Lake County, Illinois, where his occupation was listed as a house painter. In 1920, they lived in Zion, Lake County, where George had no occupation listed, although the 1919 city directory does list his occupation as a painter. In 1930, George, by then a widow, was living in Elyria, Lorain County, Ohio, where he died on October 10, 1933.

The photograph was taken by Albert K. Drury of Le Roy. Comparing this photo to other known photographs of George Washington Sperry, I believe this is a photograph of him taken in the early 1880s.

Mary Isadore (Coe) Sperry
1851-1924

Mary Isadore Coe was born on 14 October 1851, in Pavilion, Genesee County, New York, the daughter of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910). Mary received her education at the Le Roy Academy and a school in Gainesville, Wyoming County, New York.

She married George W. Sperry (1853-1933), son of Platt T. Sperry (1814-1889) and Rebecca Storm (1821-1857) on May 7, 1879, in Le Roy, Genesee County. According to Census records, the Sperrys lived in Pavilion until after 1900. In 1910, they lived in Benton, Lake County, Illinois, and In 1920, Zion, Lake County, Illinois. Mary died on 4 December 1924 in Elyria, Lorain, Ohio.

The photograph was taken by Albert K. Drury of Le Roy. Comparing this photo to other known photographs of Mary Isadore (Coe) Sperry, I believe this is a photograph of her taken in the early 1880s.

Sarah Frances (Ward) Coe
1856-1942

Sarah Frances Ward was born on 6 June 1856 in Pavilion, Genesee County, New York to Charles Kendall Ward (1819-1898) and Laura Caroline Davenport (1822-1876). She married Ezra Frank Coe (1853-1942) son of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910) on November 7, 1883, in Le Roy, Genesee County.

Ezra and Sarah moved frequently during the early years of their marriage. In 1885, the Iowa state census has them living in Perry, Dallas County, Iowa. Just over a year later in December 1886, their daughter Clara Evelyn Coe (1886-1972) was born in Hiawatha, Brown County, Kansas. In January 1890, their son Charles Albert Coe (1890-1978) was born in Denver, Adams County, Colorado. By 1892, they were living in Wichita, Sedgewick County, Kansas, where Ezra was employed as a traveling salesman for the Buckeye Machine Company. By 1900, they had returned to Genesee County, living in Le Roy, right next door to Ezra's parents. Their younger daughter, Laura Frances Coe (1901-1964) was born in Le Roy in February 1901.

The family remained in the Genesee County area for about twenty-five years. In 1920, they were living in Batavia. In about 1926, Ezra and Sarah relocated to Tampa, Hillsborough County, Florida, where they lived for the remainder of their lives. They did return to the Genesee County area regularly, spending several months there each year.

Ezra and Sarah both died in January 1942 in Tampa - Ezra died on January 6, and Sarah followed on January 7.

This photograph was taken by Levi Sherman of Rochester. It may have been taken in November 1883, shortly before or after her wedding.

Ezra Frank Coe

1853-1942

Ezra Frank Coe was born on 26 December 1853 in Pavilion, Genesee County, New York, the son of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910). He married Sarah Frances Ward (1856-1942), daughter of Charles Kendall Ward (1819-1898) and Laura Caroline Davenport (1822-1876) on November 7, 1883, in LeRoy, Genesee County.

Ezra and Sarah moved frequently during the early years of their marriage. In 1885, the Iowa state census has them living in Perry, Dallas County, Iowa. Just over a year later in December 1886, their daughter Clara Evelyn Coe (1886-1972) was born in Hiawatha, Brown County, Kansas. In January 1890, their son Charles Albert Coe (1890-1978) was born in Denver, Adams County, Colorado. By 1892, they were living in Wichita, Sedgewick County, Kansas, where Ezra was employed as a traveling salesman for the Buckeye Machine Company. By 1900, they had returned to Genesee County, living in Le Roy, right next door to Ezra's parents. Their younger daughter, Laura Frances Coe (1901-1964) was born in Le Roy in February 1901.

The family remained in the Genesee County area for about twenty-five years. In 1920, they were living in Batavia. In about 1926, Ezra and Sarah relocated to Tampa, Hillsborough County, Florida, where they lived for the remainder of their lives. They did return to the Genesee County area regularly, spending several months there each year.

Ezra and Sarah both died in January 1942 in Tampa - Ezra died on January 6, and Sarah followed on January 7.

This photograph was taken by Levi Sherman of Rochester. It may have been taken in November 1883, shortly before or after his wedding.

Ezra Frank Coe

1853-1942

Ezra Frank Coe was born on 26 December 1853 in Pavilion, Genesee County, New York, the son of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910). He married Sarah Frances Ward (1856-1942), daughter of Charles Kendall Ward (1819-1898) and Laura Caroline Davenport (1822-1876) on November 7, 1883, in LeRoy, Genesee County.

Ezra and Sarah moved frequently during the early years of their marriage. In 1885, the Iowa state census has them living in Perry, Dallas County, Iowa. Just over a year later in December 1886, their daughter Clara Evelyn Coe (1886-1972) was born in Hiawatha, Brown County, Kansas. In January 1890, their son Charles Albert Coe (1890-1978) was born in Denver, Adams County, Colorado. By 1892, they were living in Wichita, Sedgewick County, Kansas, where Ezra was employed as a traveling salesman for the Buckeye Machine Company. By 1900, they had returned to Genesee County, living in Le Roy, right next door to Ezra's parents. Their younger daughter, Laura Frances Coe (1901-1964) was born in Le Roy in February 1901.

The family remained in the Genesee County area for about twenty-five years. In 1920, they were living in Batavia. In about 1926, Ezra and Sarah relocated to Tampa, Hillsborough County, Florida, where they lived for the remainder of their lives. They did return to the Genesee County area regularly, spending several months there each year.

Ezra and Sarah both died in January 1942 in Tampa - Ezra died on January 6, and Sarah followed on January 7.

This photograph was taken at the Kilborn & Co. Studio in Cedar Rapids, Linn County, Iowa. Ezra was living in New York in late 1883, in Perry, Dallas County, Iowa in 1885, and Kansas in 1886. So this photo was likely taken between 1884 and 1886.

Carrie (Prentice) Benham
1866-1945

Carrie Prentice was born in April 1866 in Pennsylvania, most likely in Pike or Le Raysville, Bradford County, where her father Martin S. Prentice (1837-1925) lived from at least 1863-1901. Her mother was Martha Ann Ford (1835-1883).

Carrie married Charles H. Benham (1861-1916), the son of James Benham and Eliza, in 1884. Charles and Carrie had two children, Jay M. (1886-1887) and Frederick M. (1889-1973).

The Benhams lived in Pike, Bradford County, Pennsylvania through at least 1900, when Charles' occupation was listed as a teamster. By 1910, they lived in Nichols, Tioga County, New York, when both Carrie's husband Charles and their son Fred were employed at a cabinet factory. In 1915, Charles' occupation was listed as a carpenter, while their son Fred worked as a laborer in a shoe factory. Charles Benham died in Nicols, Tioga County on 21 July 1916.

In 1920, Carrie was still living in Nicols, where she was employed as a cutter in a mill. By 1925, Carrie and Fred were living in Owego, Tioga County, where she was employed as a stitcher in a corset factory. By 1930, Carrie was back in Binghamton where she lived until her death on 6 December 1945.

The photograph was probably taken in the mid-1880s at the Studio of Silsby B. VanNess.

Frank Lincoln Walkley

1867-1961

Frank Lincoln Walkley was born on 9 June 1867 in Pavilion, Genesee County, New York, the son of Rosman L Walkley (1838-1930) and Maryetta Peck (1843-1922). He married Carrie Evelyn Coe (1864-1948), daughter of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910) on 21 June 1894 in Le Roy, Genesee County.

Frank and Carrie Walkley had five children: Fred Rosman (1895-1981), Albert Coe (1896-1983), Clarence Willard (1898-1983), Floyd Frank (1900-1981), and James Harry (1903-1985).

The Walkley family lived in Le Roy their entire married lives, where Frank was a farmer. Carrie died in Le Roy on 5 August 1948. Frank died in Wyoming County, New York on 13 July 1961. They are both buried in Machpelah Cemetery in Le Roy.

The photograph was taken at the studio of Edwin R. Williamson of Rochester, New York, probably in 1893-1894.

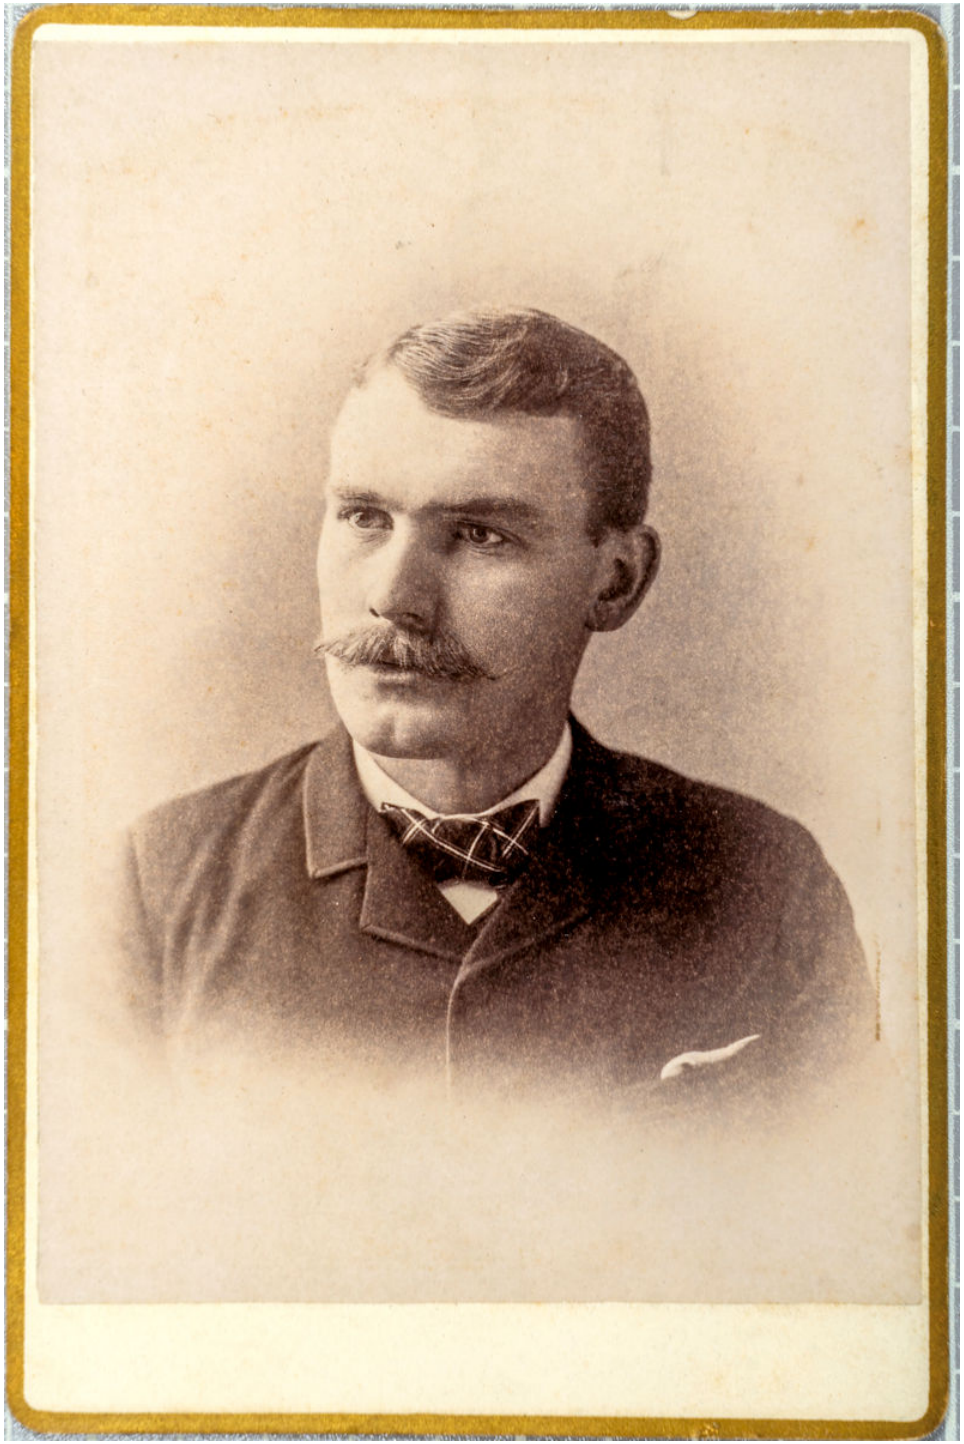
James Daniel McEwen

1861-1901

James Daniel McEwen was born on 7 February 1861 in Le Roy, Genesee County, New York, the son of Donald McEwen (1819-1911) and Hannah Heagle (1833-1923). He married Clara Addie Coe (1864-1950), daughter of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910) on 29 October 1890 in Le Roy. They had two sons, Harold Daniel (1892-1963) and John Donald (1897-1984).

James McEwen settled in Wichita, Sedgewick, Kansas in about 1889. By 1891, he was the owner of J.D. McEwen & Co., Commission Merchants. Starting in 1894, his business focused on wholesale fruit and produce. James died in Wichita on 4 August 1901. James' widow, Clara, remained in Wichita for the rest of her life. Both she and her husband are buried in Machpelah Cemetery in Le Roy.

The photograph was taken by Levi Sherman of Rochester, New York, most likely in the mid-1880s.



Carrie Evelyn (Coe) Walkley 1864-1948

Fred Rosman Walkley 1895-1981

Carrie Evelyn Coe and her twin sister Clara Addie Coe were born on 10 November 1864 in Pavilion, Genesee County, New York to Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910). Carrie married Frank Lincoln Walkley (1867-1961), son of Rosman L Walkley (1838-1930) and Maryetta Peck (1843-1922) on 21 June 1894 in Le Roy, Genesee County.

Carrie and her husband had five sons: Fred Rosman (1895-1981), Albert Coe (1896--1983), Clarence Willard (1898-1983), Floyd Frank (1900-1981), and James Harry (1903-1985). They lived in Le Roy until Carrie's death on 5 August 1948. Frank died on 13 July 1961.

Fred Rosman Walkley was born on 18 May 1895 in Le Roy, son of Frank Lincoln Walkley and Carrie Evelyn Coe. He married Marjorie Doris Aldrich (1896-1973), daughter of Clark Mason Aldrich (1875-1962) and Glennie Louis Shattuck (1875-1928) on 20 June 1918 in Castile, Wyoming County, New York. Fred and Marjorie had three children: Glenn Evelyn (1919-2011), Frank Aldrich (1921-2009), and Betty Jane (1923-2012). They divorced in 1953. Fred later married Norma Eiseman (1912-2004), daughter of George Edward Eiseman. on 8 August 1953 in Perry, Wyoming County. Fred Rosman Walkley died on 8 April 1981 in Osceola, Florida.

Based on Fred’s age in the photograph, it was most likely taken in late 1895 or early 1896, at George M. Hoffman’s studio in Le Roy.

Frank Lincoln Walkley 1867-1961

Albert Coe Walkley 1896-1983

Frank Lincoln Walkley was born on 9 June 1867 in Pavilion, Genesee County, New York, the son of Rosman L Walkley (1838-1930) and Maryetta Peck (1843-1922). He married Carrie Evelyn Coe (1864-1948), daughter of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910) on 21 June 1894 in Le Roy, Genesee County.

Frank and Carrie Walkley had five children: Fred Rosman (1895-1981), Albert Coe (1896-1983), Clarence Willard (1898-1983), Floyd Frank (1900-1981), and James Harry (1903-1985).

The Walkley family lived in Le Roy their entire married lives, where Frank was a farmer. Carrie died in Le Roy on 5 August 1948. Frank died in Wyoming County, New York on 13 July 1961. They are both buried in Machpelah Cemetery in Le Roy.

Albert Coe Walkley was born on 4 October 1896 in Le Roy, the son of Frank Lincoln Walkley and Carrie Evelyn Coe. He married Jane Conning Donnan (1899-1979), the daughter of Nathan Wells Donnan (1862-1952) and Elizabeth Robinson (1870-1943), on 30 June 1927 in Schenectady, Schenectady County, New York. Albert Coe Walkley died on 24 May 1983 in Crawfordsville, Montgomery County, Indiana.

Based on Albert's age in the photograph, it was most likely taken in 1897. The photograph was Charles J. Brooks of Le Roy.

Charles Arthur Call
1885-1962

Charles Arthur Call was born on 8 October 1885 in Stafford, Genesee County, New York, the son of Charles Joslin Call (1859-1939) and Elizabeth Ann Coe (1862-1956). He was known as Arthur or C. Arthur Call.

He married Bertha May Hotchkiss (1882-1946), daughter of Horatio Nelson Hotchkiss (1855-1938) and Carrie Adell VanName (1861-1944), on 28 July 1909 in Gainesville, Wyoming County, New York. Arthur and Bertha had five children: Helen Elizabeth (1910-1997), Mildred (1911-1911), Marian Alberta (1911-2000), Robert Olin (1919-2000), and Edith Adelle (1921-2006).

Arthur and his family lived in a number of places over the years. In 1910, they lived in Schenectady, Schenectady County, New York, where he worked as an electrical engineer. By 1916, they were living in Hartford, Hartford County, Connecticut. In 1919, they lived in Glen Ridge, Essex County, New Jersey. In 1923, they lived in Springfield, Hampden County, Massachusetts. In 1926, they lived in Barberton, Summit County, Ohio. By 1927, they had moved to Syracuse, Onondaga County, New York where Arthur worked as a salesman for an engineering firm. In 1934, they were living in Batavia, Genesee County, where Arthur worked as a poultry man. In 1940, they were living in Lewiston, Niagara County, New York, where Arthur worked as an electrician for a power utility.

After Bertha's death in 1946, Arthur married Anna Frances Meyer (1886-1971), daughter of Louis F Meyer (1848-????) and Barbara E Wagner (1863-????) on 5 July 1947. Arthur died on 1 August 1962 at Niagara Falls, Niagara County.

The photograph was taken on 4 September 1886. Not only did his mother note the date the photograph was taken, but she also included that he was age 11 months less 4 days when it was taken. The photograph was taken by Charles W. Tallman of Batavia.

Clara Evelyn Coe
1886-1972

Clara Evelyn Coe was born on 30 December 1886 in Hiawatha, Brown County, Kansas, the daughter of Ezra Frank Coe (1853-1942) and Sarah Frances Ward (1856-1942). She married Ward Coe Bryant (1881-1975), son of Frank E. Bryant (1858-1944) and Eva S. Coe (1860-1949) on 30 August 1906 at the home of her grandparents Albert Coe and Deborah Prentice in Le Roy, Genesee County, New York. Clara and her husband were third cousins, sharing Jesse Coe and Olive Roberts as common ancestors.

Clara Evelyn Coe and her husband Ward Coe Bryant had four children: Frank Ruddy (1907-1934), Charles Warren (1909-1960), Frederick Ward (1913-1991), and Janet Elizabeth (1921-2006). The Bryant family settled in Greenfield, Franklin County, Massachusetts by 1909, where Ward Coe Bryant was an osteopathic physician.

Clara Evelyn Coe died on 16 October 1972 in Greenfield. Her husband died there on 28 July 1975.

The back of the photograph identifies it as Clara Evelyn Coe, aged 8 months. Since Clara was born on 30 December 1886, the photograph was probably taken in August or September 1887. At the time, Ezra Frank Coe and his family were living in Hiawatha, Brown County, Kansas.

Harold Daniel McEwen

1892-1963

Harold Daniel McEwen was born on 27 May 1892 in Wichita, Sedgewick County, Kansas, the son of James Daniel McEwen (1861-1901) and Clara Addie Coe (1864-1950). He married Evelyn M. Rorabaugh (1896-1972) on 12 November 1921 in Wichita. They had one daughter, Joanne (1923-2011).

Harold lived in Wichita until sometime between 1921-1928. At various times he worked as the manager of the Le Roy Hotel (owned by his mother), and a bookkeeper at Steffen Bretch Ice and Ice Cream, Co. By 1928, he was living in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, working as a dry goods merchant. By 1935, he was in Dallas, Dallas County, Texas where he worked as a merchandiser for a department store. At the time of his death in Dallas in 1963, he worked at E.F. Hutton in Securities and Investments.

Based on Harold's age in the photograph, it was likely taken in late 1892-early 1893 at Baldwin & Son photography studio in Wichita.

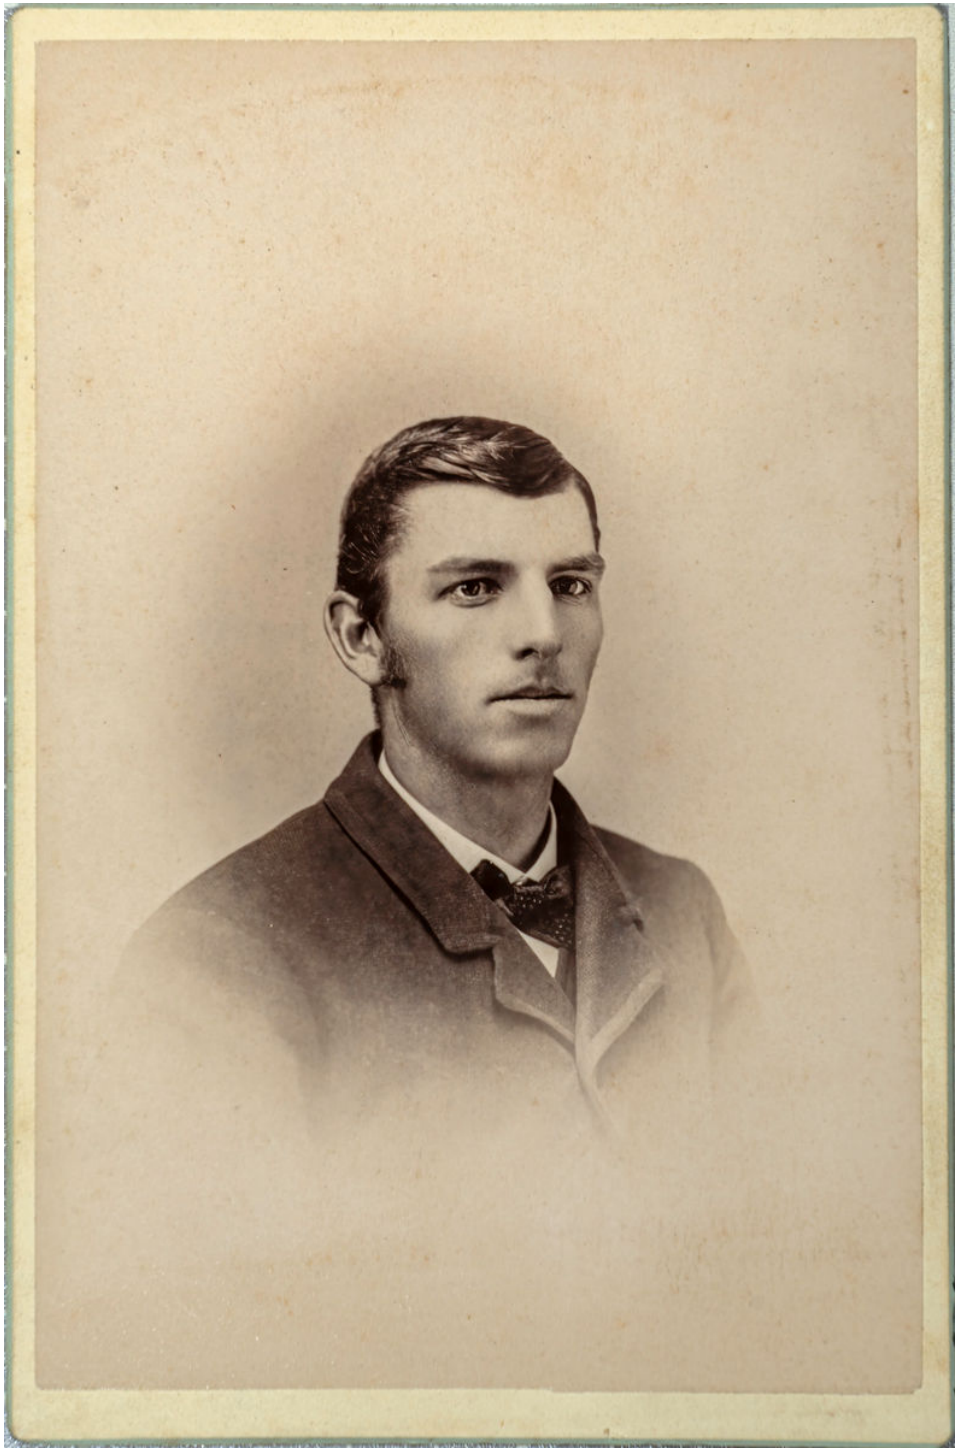
Harold Daniel McEwen

1892-1963

Harold Daniel McEwen was born on 27 May 1892 in Wichita, Sedgewick County, Kansas, the son of James Daniel McEwen (1861-1901) and Clara Addie Coe (1864-1950). He married Evelyn M. Rorabaugh (1896-1972) on 12 November 1921 in Wichita. They had one daughter, Joanne (1923-2011).

Harold lived in Wichita until sometime between 1921-1928. At various times he worked as the manager of the Le Roy Hotel (owned by his mother), and a bookkeeper at Steffen Bretch Ice and Ice Cream, Co. By 1928, he was living in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, working as a dry goods merchant. By 1935, he was in Dallas, Dallas County, Texas where he worked as a merchandiser for a department store. At the time of his death in Dallas in 1963, he worked at E.F. Hutton in Securities and Investments.

The photograph likely dates from about 1894. It was taken at the Baldwin & Son photography studio in Wichita.



Charles Joslin Call

1859-1939

Charles Joslin Call was born on 28 March 1859 in Stafford, Genesee County, New York, the son of Robert Call (1831-1913) and Charlotte Joslin (1834-1908). He married Elizabeth Ann Coe (1862-1956), daughter of Albert Coe (1827-1907) and Deborah Prentice (1833-1910) on 5 November 1884 at the Coe family home in Le Roy, Genesee County.

Charles and Elizabeth had six children: Charles Arthur (1885-1962), Edith Alberta (1889-1989), Robert Vincent (1892-1961), Evelyn Clara (1895-1962), Carrie Pearl (1895-1895), and Irving Joslyn (1900-1995). With the exception of several years in Wichita, Sedgewick, Kansas (1888-1896), Charles Joslin Call lived in Stafford all his life, much of it on the family farm purchased by his father in 1868.

Politically, Charles was a populist. He supported the formation of a Free Silver League in Wichita and was active in temperance organizations and the Grange for many years. He ran for local office in Genesee County several times on the Prohibition Party ticket. In 1910, he ran for New York State Treasurer on the Prohibition Party ticket. In 1923, he was elected town supervisor for Stafford, running as a Republican. In 1927, he was elected Justice of the Peace.

In addition to running the family farm, Charles Joslin Call engaged in a number of businesses over the years. In Wichita, he was involved with the Wichita Steam Pipe Company, the Wichita Implement House, and a grocery store. Back in Stafford, he was one of the founders of, and president for many years of the Stafford Telephone Company.

Charles Joslin Call died on 12 June 1939 at his home in Stafford. His wife Elizabeth died on 3 November 1956. They are both buried in the Stafford Rural Cemetery.

The photograph was probably taken in the mid-1880s, possibly around the time of his marriage. The photographer was Charles W. Tallman of Batavia, Genesee County.

Clara Evelyn Coe 1886-1972
Charles Albert Coe 1890-1978

Clara Evelyn Coe was born on 30 December 1886 in Hiawatha, Brown County, Kansas, the daughter of Ezra Frank Coe (1853-1942) and Sarah Frances Ward (1856-1942). She married Ward Coe Bryant (1881-1975), son of Frank E. Bryant (1858-1944) and Eva S. Coe (1860-1949) on 30 August 1906 at the home of her grandparents Albert Coe and Deborah Prentice in Le Roy, Genesee County, New York. Clara and her husband were third cousins, sharing Jesse Coe and Olive Roberts as their common ancestors.

Clara Evelyn Coe and her husband Ward Coe Bryant had four children: Frank Ruddy (1907-1934), Charles Warren (1909-1960), Frederick Ward (1913-1991), and Janet Elizabeth (1921-2006). The Bryant family settled in Greenfield, Franklin County, Massachusetts by 1909, where Ward Coe Bryant was an osteopathic physician.

Clara Evelyn Coe died on 16 October 1972 in Greenfield. Her husband died there on 28 July 1975.

Her brother, Charles Albert Coe, was born on 15 January 1890 in Denver, Adams County, Colorado. On 9 April 1911, he married Estrella Louise Monighan (1890-1956), daughter of James Monighan and Sarah Green in Geneva, Monroe County, New York. They divorced between 1930 and 1940. On 28 November 1940, he married Elvira Arndt (1902-1986), daughter William Arndt and Alvina Wendt in Tampa, Hillsborough County, Florida, Charles had no children with either of his wives. He died on 30 July 1978 in Orange County, Florida.

The photograph was likely taken between 1892-1893, at the Baldwin & Son photography studio in Wichita.

John Donald McEwen

1897-1984

John Donald McEwen was born on Easter Sunday, 18 April 1897, in Wichita, Sedgewick County, Kansas, the son of James Daniel McEwen (1861-1901) and Clara Addie Coe (1864-1950). He married Bernice Beachy (1892-1945) daughter of Cyrus M. Beachy (1862-1945) and Anna Olinger (1864-1955) on 17 April 1917 in Wichita. John and Bernice had two children, Own Coe McEwen (1924-2012), and Ellen McEwen (1928-2014).

From about 1918 through at least 1940, John worked at Steffen Bretch Ice and Ice Cream Company in Wichita. In 1920, he was an accountant there. By 1930, he was a manager. And by 1940, he was a Vice President of the firm.

Before 1952, John married Charlotte German (1908-1997), the daughter of James Lafayette German (1879-1952), and Eunice Scott (1855-1946). John Donald McEwen died on 3 March 1984. He is buried in Wichita.

Based on John's age, the photograph was likely taken in 1897 at the studio of photographer Clifford E. Sawyer.

Russell White Call 1879-1944
Ralph Merrill Call 1885-1959
Archie Duane Call 1881-1956

Albert Henry Call (1857-1934) was the oldest surviving son of Robert Call (1831-1913) and Charlotte Joslin (1834-1908). He married Effie May White (1852-1935), daughter of Salma White (1817-1881) and Betsy Chittenden (1823-1912) in 1878. Albert and Effie had four children: Russell White (1879-1944), Archie Duane (1881-1956), Ralph Merrill (1885-1959), and Mabelle (1887-1956). This photograph shows the three older children.

Russell White Call was born on 25 November 1879 in Stafford, Genesee County, New York. He married Blanche May Chittenden (1890-1984), the daughter of Ralph W. Chittenden (1858-1940) and Mary Ann Barnstable (1863-1945) on 24 June 1914 at Gurnee, Lake County, Illinois. Russell and Blanche had one child, Mary Ann (1828-1993). Russell White Call died on 26 November 1944 in Batavia, Genesee County.

Archie Duane Call was born on 12 July 1881 in Stafford. He married Mabel Elizabeth Westbrook (1881-1966), the daughter of John A. Westbrook (1858-1933) and Amelia Lawrence (1848-1928), on 9 April 1908 in Genesee County. Archie and Mabel had five children: Gladys Pauline (1909-1933), Donald O (1910-2010), Marion Amelia (1912-2008), Wendell Westbrook (1914-2002), and Archie Duane (1916-2000). Archie Duane Call died on 2 July 1956 in Stafford.

Ralph Merrill Call was born on 7 November 1885 in Stafford. He married Edith Harper (1886-1965), the daughter of George Harper (1858-????) and Mary (1860-????) on 26 February 1908 in Genesee County. Ralph and Edith had four children: Ralph Alfred (1909-1973), Kenneth Harper (1912-1974), Floyd Henry (1913-1960), and Doris Muriel (1920-1996). Ralph Merrill Call died on 19 January 1959 in Stafford.

The photograph likely dates from the late 1880s. It was taken by photographer Philos Beecher Housekneecht of Batavia.

Charlotte Elizabeth Joslin
1867-1908

Charlotte Elizabeth Joslin was born on 3 June 1867 in Chelsea, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, the daughter of William Joslin (1832-1916) and Charlotte Blackmore (1830-1885).

In 1892, Charlotte graduated from the College of Liberal Arts at Boston University. While at BU, she was a member of the first group of women initiated into the Delta Delta Delta fraternity, being the nineteenth person to sign the Alpha Chapter Constitution. She earned a master's degree from Boston University in 1899.

Following her time at Boston University, Charlotte traveled to Europe. She spent the summer of 1900 traveling, ending her travels in England. She spent the 1900-1901 school year studying at Oxford University, working towards her doctoral degree.

Professionally, Charlotte was a teacher. She taught at the High School in Chelsea, Massachusetts, and then served as preceptress at the South Kingston High School in Peace Dale, Washington County, Rhode Island. After her time at Oxford, she taught at the High School in Woonsocket, Providence County, Rhode Island.

Throughout her life, Charlotte was active in religious activities in the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was also active in the Women's Christian Temperance Union. She served as Grand Secretary of Delta Delta Delta from 1894-1897.

Charlotte Elizabeth Joslin died on 9 December 1908 in Everett, Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

This photograph dates from 1892-1893. It was probably taken around the time Charlotte graduated from Boston University, by photographer George H. Hastings of Boston.

Josephine E. (Crocker) Pratt 1843-1927
Alice Louisa Pratt 1872-1950

Josephine E. Crocker was born on 13 April 1843 in Crystal Lake, McHenry County, Illinois, the daughter of Henry Crocker (1819-1899) and Huldah Melissa Coe (1821-1902). Josephine married Peabody W. Pratt (1838-1874), son of David Pratt (1791-1882) and Electa Gibbs (1796-1874), between 1870 and 1872. They both were living in Le Roy, Genesee County, New York in 1870, so they likely married there. Peabody W. Pratt died in Le Roy on 24 November 1874. Josephine died on 10 May 1927 in Pittsburgh, Alleghany County, Pennsylvania.

Alice Louise Pratt was born on 27 July 1872 in Le Roy, the daughter of Peabody W. Pratt and Josephine E. Crocker. She married Cartter Weaver (1871-1924), son of John DeWitt Weaver (1833-1910) and Nancy Elizabeth Cartter (1833-1914), on 12 August 1908 in Le Roy. Their only child, William Cartter Weaver, was born in Pittsburgh on 31 May 1911. Cartter Weaver died on 5 April 1924 in Pittsburgh. Alice Louise died on 24 November 1950 in Pittsburgh. And their son William Cartter died there on 13 October 1986.

The photograph was likely taken in the early 1880s at the studio of photographer Sherman Gregg of Rochester, Monroe, New York.

Elizabeth Alberta (Call) Daniels 1862-1929
Walter Scott Daniels 1863-1918

Elizabeth Alberta Call was born on 12 July 1862 in Stafford, Genesee County, New York, the daughter of Robert Call (1831-1913) and Charlotte Joslin (1834-1908). Walter Scott Daniels was born on 12 April 1863 in Wyoming County, New York, the son of Charles S. Daniels (1839-1879) and Louise A. Hufteland (1843-1922).

Elizabeth and Walter married on 12 March 1891 in Stafford. They lived in either Stafford or Morganville for their entire married lives. The couple had five children: Charles Clark (1892-1983), Charlotte Louise (1893-1958), Rosalind Alberta (1897-1990), Frances Emogene (1903-1984), and Flora Elizabeth (1908-1999).

Walter died on 4 May 1918 in Stafford. Elizabeth died on 30 December 1929 in Morganville. They are buried in the Morganville Village Cemetery in Morganville.

This photograph was probably taken either shortly before or shortly after their 1891 wedding. The photographer was George W. Tallman of Batavia, Genesee County.

George Albert Coe

1862-1951

This photograph is identified as George Coe (?). Assuming it is George Coe, the question then becomes which George Coe was a close enough relative to Elizabeth Ann Coe to be included in her photo album. It was taken in Rochester, Monroe County, New York in 1884.

The most likely candidate for a young man named George Coe to have his photograph taken in Rochester in 1884 is George Albert Coe. He was born on 26 March 1862 in Mendon, Monroe County, New York, the son of George W. Coe and Harriet Van Voorhis (1831-1908). Growing up, the Coe family moved frequently as George W Coe preached in different locations. In 1884, George Albert Coe enrolled at the University of Rochester. At the time, his parents were living in Penfield, Monroe County, just a few miles outside of Rochester.

George Albert Coe married Sarah E. Knowland (1864-1905), the daughter of Joseph Knowland (1834-????) and Hannah Bailey (1833-1921) on 3 September 1888 in Alameda County, California.

Sarah Knowland Coe died on 24 August 1905 in San Francisco, California. George Albert Coe died on 9 November 1951 in Claremont, Los Angeles County, California.

The back of the photograph indicates it was taken at the studio of A.E. Dumble & Co, in Rochester, in 1884.

Unidentified Woman

There is no information on the page of the photograph or on the album page to provide any hints as to the identity of the woman in the photograph. It likely dates from the 1880s, and was taken at the studio of Levi Sherman in Rochester, Monroe County, New York.

Charles Clark Daniels 1892-1983
Charlotte Louise Daniels 1893-1958

Walter Scott Daniels (1863-1918) and Elizabeth Alberta Call (1862-1929) were the parents of five children. Their oldest two, Clark and Charlotte, are the subjects of this photograph.

Charles Clark Daniels was born on 25 April 1892 in Stafford, Genesee County, New York. He married Charlotte Louise Armstrong (1894-1979), daughter of Obadiah H. Armstrong (1865-????) and Ola Etta (1871-????), on 23 December 1913 in Genesee County. They had six children: Ellsworth Scott (1914-2004), Clayton Bage (1917-1986), Walter Armstrong (1919-1949), Lois Anita (1920-1943), Dorothy Rosalind (1921-1988), and Alwyn Emmett (1925-2007). Charles Clark Daniels died in September 1983 in Batavia, Genesee County.

Charlotte Louise Daniels was born on 26 November 1893 in Le Roy, Genesee County. She married Frederick William Miller (1895-1978), the son of Andrew Miller (1870-1966) and Rose Margaret Stemmie (1874-1950), on 15 October 1921 in Morganville, Genesee County. They had one child, Frederick Andrew (1933-1951). Charlotte Louise Daniels died on 18 December 1958 in Holliston, Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

This photograph dates from September - October 1894. On the back, it states that Clark Daniels was 2 1/2 years old - he was born in April 1892 - so 2 1/2 would be October 1894. It also states that Charlotte Daniels was 10 months old - she was born in November 1893 - so 10 months would be September 1894.

The photograph was taken at the studio of Philos Beecher Housekneecht in Batavia, Genesee County

Charles Clark Daniels

1892-1983

Charles Clark Daniels , the son of Walter Scott Daniels (1863-1918) and Elizabeth Alberta Call (1862-1929), was born on 25 April 1892 in Stafford, Genesee County, New York. He married Charlotte Louise Armstrong (1894-1979), daughter of Obadiah H. Armstrong (1865-????) and Ola Etta (1871-????), on 23 December 1913 in Genesee County. They had six children: Ellsworth Scott (1914-2004), Clayton Bage (1917-1986), Walter Armstrong (1919-1949), Lois Anita (1920-1943), Dorothy Rosalind (1921-1988), and Alwyn Emmett (1925-2007). Charles Clark Daniels died in September 1983 in Batavia, Genesee County.

The photograph likely dates from about 1895. The Little Lord Fauntleroy look he is wearing in the photo was very popular in the late 1880s into the 1890s. The photograph was taken at the studio of Philos Beecher Housekneecht (1858-1930) in Batavia, Genesee County.

Rosalind Alberta Daniels

1897-1900

Rosalind Alberta Daniels was born on 31 May 1897 in Morganville, Genesee County, New York, the daughter of Walter Scott Daniels (1863-1918) and Elizabeth Alberta Call (1862-1929).

Rosalind never married. Throughout her life, she was active in church activities and with her family. She was instrumental in keeping various branches of the extended Call-Joslin family connected through at least the 1970s. She regularly attended and served as secretary for the Call-Joslin family reunions. in 1942, she showed colored slides of the family at the reunion.

Rosalind Alberta Daniels died on 12 July 1990 and is buried in the Morganville Cemetery.

This photograph was probably taken in 1898 or 1899 based on Rosalind's age in the photograph. It was taken at the studio of Philos Beecher Housekneect in Batavia, Genesee County.

Arthur Sperry Prentice
1867-1924

Arthur Sperry Prentice was born on 28 November 1867 in Pennsylvania, the son of Horace Prentice (1842-1901) and Jennie Ellen Sperry (1842-1922). Arthur married Nellie Josephine Richardson (1871-1947), the daughter of Milan Richardson (1846-1896) and Elizabeth Jane Hogmire (1848-1901) on 19 October 1892 in Paw Paw, Van Buren County, Michigan. From 1890-1891, Arthur Prentice and Edward L. Goodale operated a furniture business in Paw Paw, where Arthur married in 1892.

Arthur and Nellie had two daughters, Earnestine (1899-1972) and Virginia (1913-1992). Arthur and his father Horace Prentice operated Prentice & Son, a furniture store in Kalamazoo for many years.

Arthur Sperry Prentice died on 30 December 1924 in Kalamazoo. Nellie Josephine Richardson Prentice died there on 20 May 1947.

This photograph likely dates from the early 1890s - probably no later than 1892. Neither man in the photograph can be positively identified. Arthur Sperry Prentice is one of the two. The other is unknown.